Boy on a Sick Bed Subjected to Death.

Circumstances Pointing to Encardismus.

IN CHICAGO.

In from Box 762 at 10:15 last evening by the discovery of fire between two frame buildings on the northeast corner and Market streets. The engine bay by the time the engines arrived had gained considerable headway, spreading rapidly to adjoining buildings. The firemen labored three-quarters of an hour, in quenching it, owing to the timber-work in which the buildings were constructed. More engines were sent half-hour after the first alarm, and within a few minutes the fire was under control. The corner building, a two-story and basement frame, is occupied as a wholesale liquor-house by Schaeffer on the upper floor by persons whose names could not be ascertained. In S. L. is a similar building, occupied in House and saloon by Henry Mueller. Buildings were completely gutted on floors, and the damage is estimated at $1,000, which is covered by insurance. The No. 79 Mr. Wecke has complained to the office that they would not let him have his business in the basement of the unoccupied building. He says he is about to put it out.

All, I ran toward the east, and I the people that there was fire."

I heard up everybody in Miller's, and the man Miller and his wife were fire, and had no time to bed. If somebody would wake them should have known the boy who was said to have been burned up, or dead or idiotic, or was anything like that, he was a well boy," and doubt smothered in the smoke

on an idea that started the fire!"

Now that when I saw the fire in the corner, it was what a terrible sight it was! It had spread like lightning, and had through the space between the houses. I think it was a mile wide, and I know that I know, my brother was there, too. A man came up and said the store is on fire." I said, and then I was forward, and I was black and white, and I child out. I don't know how, but it was in the basement on Gruel's. There was nothing but it was to be fitted up as a smoke store. I don't know how much was left."

He had to run on hand, and he was all kinds of Honors and he was worth $1,000,000 that came in from New York. Wed a large stock. Schaeffer on the West Side, and I know."

He left the scene, glibbered with an appearance of power, and was found the next day to be the contrivance of a resident.

Several residents who were at the fire and the destruction was sought prior to the time of the fire, and the business done by the whole-
"I" houses, one characterizing the "whole-the contrivance of a resident."

The parties had been about two months, and the neighborhood on each side knew it was suffering from sickness, so that he made no noise, or he may have been compelled, while still sleeping.

He was going to a party, and was about 13 years old, slept deep floor of No. 81 on the West Side, in the house on the West Side, and I know."

BEECHER AND HELL.

His Reply to Criticism of His View of Endless Punishment.

A Bold Declaration of Belief—Orthodox Calvinism Rejected as Loathsome and Hideous.

His Sectarian Position—Heaven and Hell Spiritual, Not Material, Conditions.

Correspondence New York Herald.

Beecher—On Jan. 18.—Henry Ward Beecher passed through Boston yesterday morning en route from Skowhegan, Me., where he has been lecturing. The Herold correspondent obtained from him an interview on the subject of his recent and much-discussed sermon on "Endless Punishment." Mr. Beecher talked cheerfully, and yet with evident care and deliberation, well-weighting the effect of his words. In the course of the interview he plainly indicated his belief that in our new famous utterances against the general-received orthodox dogma of eternal suffering there had been a fallacy in the form of dried up dogmas, and that we have their opponents uttering a continual protest against them.
